

High School Concert

The Cleveland Orchestra's High School Concert features an exceptionally talented young soloist close in age to the high school age audience members and is patterned after adult subscription concerts to help nurture our audiences of the future. This year's concert also includes the middle school and high school musicians of the Cleveland Orchestra Youth Orchestra, performing side-by-side with The Cleveland Orchestra.

Robin Su, age 18, is a freshman at the University of Southern California Thornton School of Music, where he is studying with Los Angeles Chamber Orchestra concertmaster Margaret Batjer. In 2011, he graduated from the Young Artist Program at the Cleveland Institute of Music, where he studied with Cleveland Orchestra Concertmaster William Preucil as well as Joan Kwuon. Mr. Su was a member of the Cleveland Orchestra Youth Orchestra from 2007 to 2011 and served as co-concertmaster for the 2009-10 and 2010-11 seasons.

Robin received third prize at the 2005 Sigma Alpha Iota International Music Fraternity Competition. In 2010, he was the first prize winner at the Solon Center for the Arts Young Artist Concerto Competition and performed as soloist with the Solon Philharmonic Orchestra. Robin has appeared on multiple occasions as soloist with the PAND Orchestra. He attended ENCORE School for Strings from 2006 to 2008, and the Kent/Blossom Music Festival from 2008 to 2010, where he studied with Ivan Chan. Robin has also studied extensively with Vladimir Deninzon and Linda Cerone. An active chamber musician, Robin has been coached by Annie Fullard of the Cavani Quartet and by members of the Miami String Quartet.

In addition to his success as a young violinist, Mr. Su is also an accomplished pianist. He was the gold medalist at the World Piano Competition in 2005 and made his debut at Carnegie Hall the same year. In addition, Robin enjoys giving back to the community, where he performs on a volunteer-basis at nursing homes, the Cleveland Clinic "Doctor Patient Music Connection", his church, and benefit concerts with proceeds going to "Doctors Without Borders" for Haiti and Japan disaster relief.
