MUSIC STUDY GROUPS

with Dr. Rose Breckenridge

The Cleveland Orchestra Music Study Groups are designed for both new and experienced music lovers and follow The Cleveland Orchestra's performance schedule at Severance Hall, exploring current concert music through informal lectures, listening, and discussion with other music fans.

Lecturer Rose Breckenridge leads all Music Study Group classes. Dr. Breckenridge earned her Ph.D. in music from Case Western Reserve University.

Music Study Groups meet throughout Greater Cleveland at six convenient, community locations. Registrants may choose a length that best fits their schedules -- fall, winter, and/or spring.

To join, please complete the enclosed registration form.

Or for more information, contact The Cleveland Orchestra Department of Education and Community Programs at (216) 231-7353 or visit clevelandorchestra.com.

Special services for persons with vision loss are offered at Heights Library and Fairview Park Library.

Supported by Cleveland Sight Center and The Cleveland Orchestra Alice Cull Fund.
