

2009/10 Programs for Teachers

1 NEOEA Day Program!

Music, History, and More at Severance Hall!

No school on NEOEA Day? Looking for a little inspiration? Be our guest for a special NEOEA Day program! Enjoy a Cleveland Orchestra rehearsal, a tour of Severance Hall, and learn more about our broad array of educational programs. $15 registration fee includes a rehearsal ticket, lunch and parking.

2 Education Concert Workshops

Presenters: Dr. Robert E. Dunn, Professor, Brigham Young University & Vanessa Bond, Doctoral Candidate, Case Western Reserve University

Dr. Robert Dunn

Engage your students in active listening by familiarizing them with Education Concert selections before they step foot in Severance Hall. These lively workshops include ready-to-use, repertoire-specific lesson plans, a special workshop CD and other classroom materials. Great for music specialists or grade-level teachers. Workshop fee of $25 covers all materials and parking.

3 Learning Through Music Workshop

With Mitchell Korn

Led by arts education expert Mitchell Korn, this workshop provides an inspiring introduction to the arts integration approach to learning including modeling of LTM lesson plans and a special presentation by a Cleveland Orchestra musician. You'll leave with many fun, creative teaching strategies, all aligned to Ohio standards. Workshop fee of $25 includes materials, parking, and dinner. Open to grade-level teachers, music and art specialists of grades K-5.
