

SUPPORTING EDUCATION & COMMUNITY

MUSIC FOR ALL AGES AND STAGES OF LIFE

The Cleveland Orchestra has a long and proud history of sharing the value and joy of music with people throughout Northeast Ohio. Education and community programs date to the Orchestra's founding in 1918 and have remained a central focus of the ensemble's activities in serving its hometown. The Cleveland Orchestra has introduced more than 4 million young people to symphonic music — through live concert experiences and performances over the past nine decades. Today, with the support of many generous individual, foundation, corporate, and governmental funding partners, the Orchestra's education and community programs reach more than 60,000 young people and adults annually, fostering a love of music and a lifetime of involvement with the musical arts.
