The Cleveland Orchestra Cancels January 2022 Adrienne Arsht Center concerts and residency

Cancellation includes Arsht Center residency education activities and Cleveland Orchestra performances at the Kravis Center and Artis—Naples

CLEVELAND – Today, The Cleveland Orchestra regrets to announce the cancellation of its 2022 Miami residency in partnership with the Adrienne Arsht Center for the Performing Arts of Miami-Dade County. The decision has been made for the safety of the Orchestra and traveling staff due to the steady increase of Covid-19 cases and high transmission rating from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). The cancellations include four concerts at Knight Concert Hall in January 2022, prelude concerts, and all related education and community activities. Details of these programs are included below.

This cancellation only relates to The Cleveland Orchestra concerts at the Adrienne Arsht Center for the Performing Arts. Ticket holders should contact the Arsht Center Box Office for information about all other Arsht Center performances.

The Adrienne Arsht Center has been the presenting partner of the Orchestra's Miami concerts since the annual residency began in 2007. Information about the Orchestra's Miami residency during the 2022-23 season will be announced in the coming months.

The Cleveland Orchestra's next performances of the 2021-22 Severance classical season will take place the weekends of January 13 and February 3 at Severance Music Center and will continue through May 2022, rounding out the 2021-22 season in Cleveland. For up to date information on the Severance season, visit clevelandorchestra.com/.

Ticket Exchange, Donation, or Refund Information

To exchange cancelled tickets for a gift certificate, donate them for a tax credit or to receive a refund, please contact the Arsht Center Box Office at 305-949-6722 or 877-949-6722 or tickets@arshtcenter.org. The cancellation is for The Cleveland Orchestra's January 2022 concerts only, presented in partnership with the Adrienne Arsht Center for the Performing Arts. Please contact the Arsht Center box office for information and plans for all other performances scheduled at the Arsht Center throughout 2021-22. 2022 subscribers' seats will be held for the 2022-23 season concerts and renewal information will be sent to ticket holders before the 2022-23 concert season.

Additional South Florida Performance: West Palm Beach and Naples (CANCELED)

As part of this cancellation, The Cleveland Orchestra will not perform in West Palm Beach at the Kravis Center for the Performing Arts on Sunday, January 23 or at Artis—Naples on Monday, January 24. For information about options for ticket holders, please visit the Kravis Center website at Kravis.org and the Artis—Naples website at artisnaples.org/subscriptions/visiting-orchestras or contact their respective Box Offices.

The Cleveland Orchestra in Miami extends its sincere gratitude to The Dr. M. Lee Pearce Foundation, Inc. for its leadership support of In Focus and digital concerts presented on Adella.live in 2021-22.

We also share our thanks to our entire Florida family of supporters, whose generosity brings our music to life.

About The Cleveland Orchestra in Miami

The Cleveland Orchestra's Miami residency was launched in January 2007 during the inaugural season of the Adrienne Arsht Center for the Performing Arts of Miami-Dade County. Over the course of 14 seasons, The Cleveland Orchestra, an Arsht Center Arts Partner, has served the Miami-Dade community with an array of musical presentations, including a series of subscription concerts, education programs, and community engagement activities. The Cleveland Orchestra's Miami residency is supported through the generosity of music lovers from across South Florida who believe in the power of great orchestral music for adults and young people alike. Each season of The Cleveland Orchestra in Miami is presented in partnership with the Arsht Center.

Founded in 1918, and now in its Second Century of musical excellence, The Cleveland Orchestra is acknowledged as one of the world's best orchestras, with The New York Times declaring it the "best in America." Under its current music director, Franz Welser-Möst, The Cleveland Orchestra continues to set standards of performing excellence and imaginative programming that serve as models for audiences and performers alike. In concerts and education programs in Cleveland, on tour, and in Miami, the ensemble is forging the path forward for symphonic music in the 21st century — attracting young audiences, building new partnerships with the communities it serves, and continuing its long tradition of excellence and musical inspiration. ### About the Adrienne Arsht Center for the Performing Arts of Miami-Dade County

Set in the heart of downtown Miami, the Adrienne Arsht Center for the Performing Arts of Miami Dade County is committed to welcoming and connecting ALL people to the arts, to the Arsht Center and to each other. Our stages are alive year-round with artists from around the world, innovative programming from our resident companies and local arts partners, free community events that reflect Miami's unique identity and arts education experiences for thousands of Miami children each year. Since opening in 2006, the Arsht Center, a 501C3 non-profit organization, has been recognized as a catalyst for billions of dollars in new development in the downtown area, a leader in programming that mirrors South Florida's diversity, a host venue for historic events and Miami's hub for arts education. Each year, we serve more than 50,000 young learners and offer more than 100 culturally diverse and inclusive education programs — many enhanced by the Arsht Center's relationship with Miami-Dade County Public Schools, local teaching artists and Miami-based arts organizations. The Arsht Center is also a home stage for three resident companies — Florida Grand Opera, Miami City Ballet and New World Symphony — and a launch pad for local artists to make their mark on the international stage. Our 300+ events each year include the Center's Signature Series of classical, jazz, Broadway, local theater and much more. We present a robust series of touring Broadway musicals direct from New York, the largest jazz series in South Florida, a major annual Flamenco Festival and an award-winning Miami-based theater program. In addition, our Family Fest, Free Gospel Sundays, CommuniTEA LGBTQ+ celebration and Heritage Fest are among dozens of free events that bring together people from all corners of our community.
